

Beryl Cook 1926-2008

Early and rarely seen paintings sit alongside Beryl classics

Writers and critics Jess Wilder, Bernard Samuels, Edward Lucie-Smith, Bernadette Casey and Babs Horton offer a unique perspective on the self-taught artist and a critical reassessment of her place within British Art.

Limp case binding with overhang, end papers, sewn section, head and tail bands | 246 x 189 mm full colour | 104 pages

£16.00

University of Plymouth Press